Mission Update

Dear Friends,

Sometimes there are stories that will blow your hat in the creek! We particularly love this recent one:

Andrew and his brother Nathan, are 9 and 7 years old. They know Kelly, the lady we're partnered with, that is leading the ministry team to Thailand in August. They heard about the trip and felt like God would like them to help the team with funding. They have an herb garden so they thought they would sell their herbs and give the money to the team- the whole team!

They prayed about it and were asked, "How much money do you think you could raise for the team selling the herbs?" Full of faith, they answered confidently, "Probably fifty dollars!"

God loves to see faith and hope in the things not yet seen. So He responded, sending people to the herb sale. That's how it works you know. The result? The boys raised a little more than $50! They raised over $700 for the team believing for $50! Imagine their joy at seeing that!

They were cheerful, joyful givers, with a heart to bless the Lord with what they had. What a great testimony! May the Lord bless all our hearts to believe and give like these two boys and have God bless our gift over 14 times over like he did for them!

Blessings,
Wink & Glyn

*We also ask for prayer for Rosie, for her total healing and protection for family while we are out of the country.

Please take a moment today and welcome these to our church.

John 2:1-10 (NIV)

Jesus Changes Water Into Wine

2 On the third day a wedding took place at Cana in Galilee. Jesus' mother was there, 2 and Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. 3 When the wine was gone, Jesus' mother said to him, "They have no more wine."

4 "Woman,[a] why do you involve me?" Jesus replied. "My hour has not yet come."

5 His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you."

6 Nearby stood six stone water jars, the kind used by the Jews for ceremonial washing, each holding from twenty to thirty gallons. [b]

7 Jesus said to the servants, "Fill the jars with water"; so they filled them to the brim.

8 Then he told them, "Now draw some out and take it to the master of the banquet."

They did so, 9 and the master of the banquet tasted the water that had been turned into wine. He did not realize where it had come from, though the servants who had drawn the water knew. Then he called the bridegroom aside 10 and said, "Everyone brings out the choice wine first and then the cheaper wine after the guests have had too much to drink; but you have saved the best till now."

*Apostles' Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, His only begotten Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried. He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father, Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the One Holy Universal Christian Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body and life everlasting. Amen.
