175th Anniversary

Happy Anniversary First Protestant Church!

We celebrate 175 years of God’s blessing on October 4, Charter Sunday. We will honor our founders and remember our history. Be careful...you might learn something AND you just might feel something. You might feel thanks to God for being part of such an historic church that not only has a storied past, but also a sunny future. Invite your friends and family no matter their historical ties to our church. Use the fliers we’ve created.

With several big events coming up, we’re asking the ladies of the church to furnish cookies. We’ll be needing them for Charter Sunday, October 4th, during the coffee and fellowship time in the courtyard and we’ll also need them for the National Day of Prayer in Schumann Hall on Saturday, September 26th. If you can furnish cookies for either event, please contact one of these ladies.

Nat’l Day of Prayer-Gay Wimberley, billandgay65@att.net, 830-832-2873

Celebrate Life in the Life Chain on October 4. Join people from a host of churches from 2:30-4:00pm at the Main Plaza gazebo. We will pray, then take our signs and helium balloons to stand for life around the gazebo and down the adjoining streets. Call or text your questions to Mary Legreid at 805-975-3398 or nfpchangeseverything@gmail.com.

Gift bags for our shut-ins and those not attending church at this time, will be available for pick up to deliver today in the corridor. Please consider delivering these bags to let those at home know they are in our thoughts and prayers.

This Sunday

This week’s radio broadcast is given to the honor and glory of God by the families and friends of First Protestant Church.

Next Sunday, September 27, 2020

Dr. D.M. “Woody” Woodward “If My People ” 2 Chronicles 7:12-22

“The Protection of Prayer”

Dr. D.M. “Woody” Woodward

Matthew 6:13

And lead us not into temptation,[a]
but deliver us from the evil one.[b]’

Notes:

Observing the upcoming National Day of Prayer

What perilous times we live in! The COVID-19 pandemic. Economic paralysis. Riots. Destruction. Mayhem. Our church has suffered greatly as well. So how should we respond? How can we heal America? How can we restore our church? God's advice to his people remains the same as when He gave it to Solomon in 2 Chronicles 7:14, "If my people who are called by My name shall humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and I will forgive their sin and will heal their land." As your pastor, I invite you to join me on September 26, from 8am-8pm, to pray in Schumann Hall. This upcoming National Day of Prayer is called The Return. Thousands will gather on the National Mall in Washington, D.C. while millions will gather and participate via video simulcast. We are opening the doors of First Protestant Church to hear God's word preached and respond intermittently in prayer. The board of reference for this event includes Dr. James Dobson and Anne Graham Lotz. Speakers include Michelle Bachmann, Mike Lindell, and many pastors. We will break for lunch from 10:30-11:00am. Because this is such a long day, we will make this a come-and-go affair. Some may choose to be here all day. That's fine. If you can only come for an hour, that is fine as well. Do not shirk your duty to pray.

Stand in the gap. Intercede for America, our city, and our church.
