Missions Update

A few years ago, our church decided to become more outward focused, to attempt to meet the needs of people outside our church. We were becoming like the Dead Sea—all input, but no output. As we began to focus on missions, both local and global, we made the commitment to pray, give, and go. God has blessed these commitments. We've seen lives changed around the world. Not just among the people that we and our mission partners touch, but our lives have changed as we have been doing God's work. Unfortunately COVID-19 cancelled the 2021 Global Impact Celebration, a missions conference in which we inspire our church to give above and beyond their normal giving to FPC. This adversely impacts our missionary partners. The Missions Outreach Team decided that in the absence of a GIC, we will ask you to do the following:

*Make sure your Faith Commitment Offering (GIC pledge) is current. We praise God that we have already received half of the money pledged at the 2020 GIC! Can you follow through and complete what you have promised? Be prepared to be blessed and be a blessing to our missionary friends.

*Consider giving the same or a greater amount for 2021.

* Pray for our missionaries and our church, that we will be a church responsive to Christ's call to be His hands and feet in New Braunfels and around the world.
