

11 Therefore, remember that formerly you who are Gentiles by birth and called “uncircumcised” by those who call themselves “the circumcision” (which is done in the body by human hands)—
 12 remember that at that time you were separate from Christ, excluded from citizenship in Israel and foreigners to the covenants of the promise, without hope and without God in the world. 13 But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far away have been brought near by the blood of Christ.

14 For he himself is our peace, who has made the two groups one and has destroyed the barrier, the dividing wall of hostility, 15 by setting aside in his flesh the law with its commands and regulations. His purpose was to create in himself one new humanity out of the two, thus making peace, 16 and in one body to reconcile both of them to God through the cross, by which he put to death their hostility. 17 He came and preached peace to you who were far away and peace to those who were near. 18 For through him we both have access to the Father by one Spirit.

19 Consequently, you are no longer foreigners and strangers, but fellow citizens with God’s people and also members of his household, 20 built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus himself as the chief cornerstone. 21 In him the whole building is joined together and rises to become a holy temple in the Lord. 22 And in him you too are being built together to become a dwelling in which God lives by his Spirit.

Call to Communion

Prayer of Confession

Assurance of Forgiveness: (Unison)

If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness. I John 1:9

Scripture Reading: (Unison)

The Lord Jesus in the night in which He was betrayed took bread; and when He had given thanks, He broke it and said, “This is My body, which is for you; do this in remembrance of Me.” In the same way He took the cup also after supper, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in My blood; do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me.” For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord’s death until He comes. I Corinthians 11:23-26

This Sunday

This week's radio broadcast is given to the honor and glory of God by the families and friends of First Protestant Church.

Thank you First Protestant family and the Flying Fingers for the wonderful and generous donation of the blankets and sheets for our Family Promise families. You are always so quick to respond to the needs of Family Promise and we pray that God will bless you all for your willingness and generosity.

If you would like to help St. Jude's Ranch for Children with the restoration after the flood and water damage to their New Braunfels campus, please contact Cindy Hoegenauer at choegenauer@sjrctexas.org or go to their website to make donations directly. Gift cards would be greatly appreciated for the girls who have lost so much. The damage was extensive and they're asking for a little extra help to get operational again.
