Constitution and Bylaws

FIRST PROTESTANT CHURCH CONSTITUTION

PREAMBLE

The following Constitution and Bylaws for First Protestant Church in New Braunfels, Texas, has been amended, adopted, and approved on December 11th, 2022.

It comes from the hearts and souls of the 305 original members beginning with laws of the Republic of Texas on October 15, 1845; and from their first service under the “Seele Elm Tree” on Good Friday, March 21, 1845; and from the present commitment of all its members to the everlasting Gospel of Jesus Christ.

And so, conforming with the words of the Apostle Paul in 1 Corinthians 14:40, “But all things should be done decently and in order,” let us, as members of First Protestant Church (“the Church”), pledge ourselves to observe all various provisions contained herein.

We affirm the following:

- The Trinitarian name of God – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
- God has revealed Himself fully and decisively as attested in Holy Scripture. We believe the Bible, consisting of the Old and New Testaments, to be the inspired and authoritative Word of God. The Scriptures are the guide of faith and life.
- There is only one way to salvation – through Jesus Christ.
- The sanctity of human life at every stage based on our creation in the image of God and our election by God for service in His kingdom.
- The Biblical guidelines for human sexuality: marriage as the union of one man and one woman, chastity outside of marriage, lifelong fidelity, and holiness in marriage for the sake of the kingdom.
- The mission of the Church is to spread the good news of the Gospel of salvation in every word and deed. We are sent by Christ into all the world to bring every person into a life of faith, discipleship, and submission to the Lordship of Jesus Christ.
- It claims as its own, the faith of the historic Church expressed in the ancient creeds and reclaimed in the basic insights of the Protestant Reformers, i.e., the Apostles’ and Nicene Creeds and the “Solas” of the Reformation – Scripture alone, Grace alone, Faith alone, Christ alone, for the Glory of God alone.
- In accordance with the teaching of our Lord and practice prevailing among evangelical Christians, it recognizes two sacraments: Baptism and the Lord’s Supper or Holy Communion.

ARTICLE 1

NAME & CORPORATE OFFICE

The name of this Church will be First Protestant Church, and the principal office will be located in New Braunfels, Comal County, Texas.

ARTICLE 2

MISSION

Seeking God, Sharing His Love, Serving Others

Our mission is the Great Commission of our Lord Jesus Christ who said, “All authority has been given to Me in Heaven and on earth. Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations...” (Matthew 28:18-19b). We will structure our church to make disciples.

ARTICLE 3

FAITH AND COVENANT

3.1 Faith

The Church acknowledges as its sole Head, Jesus Christ, the Son of God and the only Savior. It acknowledges, as brothers and sisters in Christ, all who share in this confession.

3.2 Covenant

We covenant one with another to seek and respond to the Word and the will of God and to walk together in the ways of the Lord. We hold it to be the purpose of the Church to witness to the Gospel of Jesus Christ in all the world, while worshipping God and striving for truth, justice, and peace. As did our Church forebearers, we depend on the Holy Spirit to lead and empower us. We pray for the coming of the kingdom of God, and we look with faith toward the triumph of righteousness and eternal life.

ARTICLE 4

POLITY

4.1 Local Congregation

This Church will be an independent local congregation of Christian believers. The Church seeks ways to be a part of the wider body of Christ through involvement in the Evangelical Association of Reformed and Congregational Christian Churches, networks, organizations, and associations of Christians. Any and all involvement with wider church entities will be instituted and/or terminated by a majority vote of a duly called congregational meeting upon the recommendation of the Church Council (“Council”). The Council designates the representative corporate member to the Evangelical Association.

4.2 Government

Ultimate authority for the operation of this Church resides in the head of the Church, the Lord Jesus Christ, and in the Scriptures as the basis for all faith and practice. This Church shall remain autonomous and self-governing.

The government is vested in its membership and directed by the Council and administered by the Ministers. In function, final authority will reside in the active members of the congregation. The congregation shall approve Biblically qualified leaders to serve on the Council and in other leadership roles. The congregation also has the authority to recall Council Members and to terminate pastoral staff. Unless otherwise specified, any action of the Church will be decided by a vote of the majority of active members present at any congregational meeting (example: Article 8.1 of the Constitution & 4.2.a.1 of the Bylaws). A quorum will consist of that number of active members present at any duly called meeting of the congregation.

4.3 The Church Council

The Council shall be responsible for shepherding the Church and overseeing personnel, ministries, facilities, finances, and the spiritual health of the Church. As qualified overseers, Council Members must be “Active Members” of the Church in good standing and must hold to the standards of scripture (1 Timothy 3:1-13, Titus 1:5-9) while leading the Church towards its Biblical vision and mission. Council Members shall have a clear understanding of the Gospel and be expected to display spiritual depth and maturity (Galatians 5: 22-26 — “Fruits of the Spirit”) in their daily personal lives in various settings. As such, they shall have made a proclamation of faith in Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior. Council Members shall be expected to regularly attend worship with the First Protestant Church community, which includes giving financially to the Church.

The Council shall focus on the governance issues that move ministry forward (the big issues of values, mission, vision, ministry initiatives, policy-making, approval of staff hires with the exception of the Senior Minister), rather than the management issues that can be delegated to staff or committees (lesser concerns such as day-to-day management issues, staff management, and developing specific ministry plans).

To ensure the Council focuses on governance issues, it shall:

- be the authority to interpret this Constitution and Bylaws;
- build written agendas around big issues not small issues;
- serve as a leadership body responsible for the entire Church, and not for individual constituencies in the Church;
- concentrate on direction, spiritual health, and policies, not management;
- be more proactive than reactive on issues concerning the Church;
- delegate consistently;
- agree on principles of decision-making; and
- disseminate information to the congregation and appropriate parties.

The Senior Minister relates to the Council in three ways:

- as the leader who develops, communicates, and implements the values, mission, vision, and ministry plan of the Church;
- as a peer and ex-officio member on the Council, entitled to a voice and vote; and
- defers to the Council’s decisions.

All other staff report to the Senior Minister.
